FREE Training

California Emergency Management Agency (CalEMA)

Safety Assessment Program

The following classes are available to the entire Southern California Region.

Safety Assessment Evaluator & Coordinator Training

DATES: Monday, June 8, 2009
or
Tuesday, June 9, 2009

TIMES: Session 1 - Evaluator Training:
9:00am - 3:30pm (Registration begins at 8:15am)
Session 2 - Coordinator Training:
Completion of Evaluator Training is required.
3:45pm - 5:15pm (Registration begins at 3:30pm)

LOCATION: City of Rancho Cucamonga
Emergency Operations Center
10510 Civic Center Drive
Rancho Cucamonga, CA 91730

RESERVATION: Space is limited. Reserve your seat in advance by calling Tina Watson at (909) 477-2770 x3005.
Please advise the date you wish to attend and if you will be registering for Session 1, Session 2, or both.

SESSION 1 - EVALUATOR TRAINING: This session will train civil, structural, geotechnical engineers, architects, and building inspectors to do field evaluations of buildings and other infrastructure for safety. Who Should Attend? Professionally registered engineers, certified building officials or inspectors.* Those individuals that have a general knowledge of construction, professional experience and judgment. (Fire Inspectors, etc.)

(*Only individuals who are professionally registered architects or engineers or certified building officials and inspectors will be given CalEMA Badges and can be deputized to tag buildings.)

SESSION 2 - COORDINATOR TRAINING: This session will train local government representatives on how to estimate the local needs for the evaluators, how to request them, and how to manage them and the information they gather.. Who Should Attend? Person(s) responsible for administering the Safety Assessment Program for your jurisdiction and who have taken the Evaluator Training Session. (Building Official, Senior Engineer, etc.) One (1) primary and (1) alternate per jurisdiction is recommended.

For more information on the Safety Assessment Program, please visit www.oes.ca.gov.

Sponsored by: West End Emergency Management Working Group